Fiscal Strategies that Support the Building Bridges Initiative Principles
November 10, 2011 1:00-2:30pm EDT
The Building Bridges Initiative’s Fiscal/Policy Workgroup has been working for two years to identify states, counties, and agencies across the country that have implemented promising and best practices consistent with BBI principles, and which result in documented positive outcomes for youth and families served. Join a panel of knowledgeable fiscal professionals, as well as representatives from entities that have changed outcomes based on successful fiscal strategies, to increase your knowledge base about a range of fiscal strategies that support positive outcomes.
PowerPoint slides and recorded presentation available on BBI & Magellan training websites.

Engage Us: The Family and Youth Engagement Guides for Residential Providers
October 27, 2011 1:00-2:30pm EDT
The Building Bridges Initiative’s Family Advisory Network (consisting of family members from across the country whose own children have been or are currently being served in residential programs) and the Youth Advisory Group (youth and advocates who have been or are currently being served in residential programs) have developed two guides for successfully engaging youth and families. Join a panel of family members, youth, and advocates who will share what works for engaging youth and families served by residential programs and their community counterparts. If you have ever struggled to partner with families and/or youth, you will gain understanding about how to change and/or improve your strategies.
PowerPoint slides and recorded presentation available on BBI & Magellan training websites.
Using the BBI Self Assessment Tool to Support the Implementation of Best Practices
December 3, 2010 2:00-3:30pm EST
The Self-Assessment Tool (SAT) offers communities and residential organizations an opportunity to engage family members, youth, and partners in evaluating their services and systems based on the practices and principles of BBI. Join a panel of representatives from residential and community programs, family members, and youth to learn about the tool and their successes and challenges in using it to make improvements in their organizations and communities.

PowerPoint slides and recorded presentation available on BBI & Magellan training websites.

Best Practices in Operationalizing Family-driven Care and Youth-guided Care in Residential Programs
Tuesday December 7, 2010 2:00-4:00pm EST
A panel of experts and youth and families will share details about BBI and specific, practical examples that illustrate how family-driven and youth-guided care have been operationalized in residential programs across the country. Join us to learn more about strategies you can use!
PowerPoint slides only available on BBI & Magellan training websites.